

Two day course - 'Education for Dementia Care Educators: How to use this new teaching resource'

by: Dr. Gemma M M Jones

What: A two day course for those interested in dementia care teaching using this new resource (see attachment for full-size description page)

- . for group staff education sessions or enhanced individual learning
- . for family carer support meetings

Where: Kingswick House, Kingswick Drive, Sunninghill, Ascot, Berks, SL5 7BH
Free on-site parking
For directions please see website:

<http://www.businesscentre-berkshire.co.uk/contactus.html>

When: October 3rd and 4th, 2011

Time: 9:30am till 4:00 pm

Registration 9:00am, with tea/coffee

Cost: £400 pp, includes handouts and CD with powerpoints for teaching

Introducing a new resource for dementia care education

by Dr. Gemma MM Jones

- Four day version of the course (as given to family carers)
- Ideal for family support material and specialist in-house dementia caregiver education
- Recommended for family carers, caregivers, students in related professions
- Key material from the knowledge base developing for professional dementia care
- Accurate information about dementia and the variety of factors influencing behaviour
- Understanding the range of abilities that can be affected, and how to support them
- Easy to remember concepts and models
- All pages may be photocopied for teaching purposes

Also available: courses about how to teach this material

Available from: The Wide Spectrum
www.thewidespectrum.co.uk Phone (44) 01344 292 279
Kingswick House, Sunninghill, Berkshire, UK, SL5 7BH

Pre-requisites for delegate:

- . has attended a 4 or 5 day version of the course taught by Gemma Jones "Communication and Care-giving in Dementia: a positive vision"
- . has access to, or is able to purchase the 14 DVD/book version of this course (available to course participants at a 17% discount using the promotional code 'WPGF' from www.TheWideSpectrum.com)
- . has reviewed all of the DVDs in preparation for attending the course
- . brings 'course DVDs/book set' to the course; it is discussed and used there
- . brings a laptop-computer that plays DVDs to the course, be familiar with its use
- . previous teaching experience is beneficial, but not required

Allocation of places:

- . places are limited to 12 participants per course
- . places allocated on receipt of full payment (on a 'first come, first served' basis)

Local accommodation:

There are B&B's and hotels in the area; nearest Travelodge is in Bracknell

Booking form for the course:
'Education for the dementia care Educators'

information about the delegate:

Name of delegate attending:

Contact Address:

Phone number:

Email of delegate:

information about the sponsoring organization:

Name of sponsor:

Contact Address:

Phone number of Manager/proprietor:

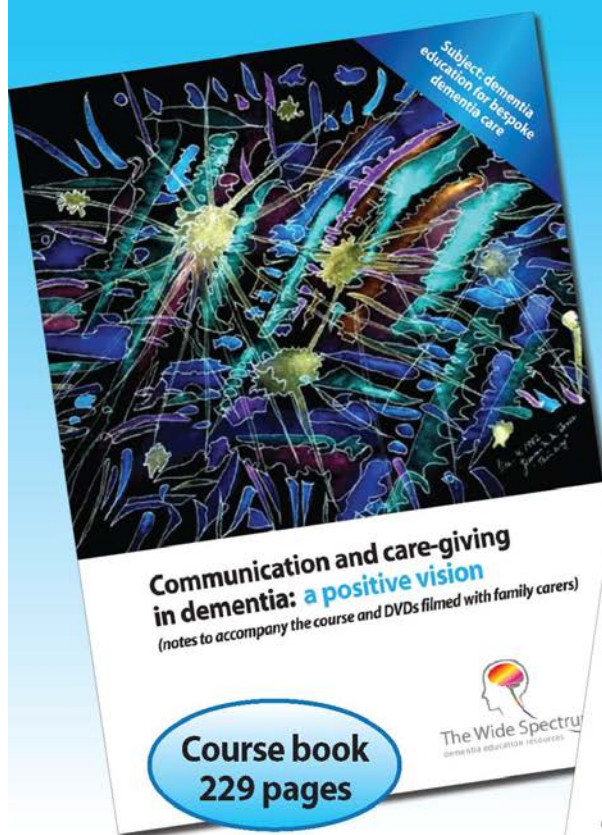

Email of Manager/proprietor:

Instructions: Payment is required in advance

- . Fill in 'Booking Form'
- . Make cheque payable to Gemma Jones Ltd.
- . Mail to above address
- . Please keep a photocopy for your own reference

Introducing a new resource for dementia care education

by Dr. Gemma MM Jones

- Four day version of the course (as given to family carers)
- Ideal for family support material and specialist in-house dementia caregiver education
- Recommended for family carers, caregivers, students in related professions
- Key material from the knowledge base developing for professional dementia care
- Accurate information about dementia and the variety of factors influencing behaviour
- Understanding the range of abilities that can be affected, and how to support them
- Easy to remember concepts and models
- All pages may be photocopied for teaching purposes

Also available: courses about how to teach this material

Available from: The Wide Spectrum
www.thewidespectrum.co.uk Phone (44) 01344 292 279
Kingswick House, Sunninghill, Berkshire, UK, SL5 7BH

The Wide Spectrum
dementia education resources